Privacy Policy — Employment Information Collection Notice

- 1. In applying for an employment position, you will be providing the CCM and the College with personal information. Current contact details are on the employment application form and available from the CCM and College websites.
- 2. If you provide personal information with your application (for example, your name and address or information contained on your CV or resume), we will collect the information in order to assess your application for employment. This assessment may include sharing your personal information within Christian Community Ministries central office and other Colleges. We may keep your personal information on file if your application is unsuccessful in case another position becomes available.
- 3. The College's Privacy Policy contains details of how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles or how you may seek access to personal information collected about you. However, there may be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others.
- 4. We will not disclose your personal information to a third party without your consent. If you provide contact details of a third party (such as a referee) as part of your application, you consent to CCM or the College contacting that third party and disclosing personal information as part of assessing your application for employment.
- 5. We may be required to conduct a criminal record check and collect information regarding whether you are or have been the subject of an apprehended violence order and certain criminal offences under Child Protection laws. We may also collect personal information about you in accordance with these laws.
- 6. CCM and the College may store personal information in the 'cloud', which may mean that it resides on servers which are situated outside Australia.
- 7. If you provide us with the personal information of others, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to CCM and the College and why, that they can access that information if they wish, and that CCM or the College does not usually disclose the information to third parties.

Section 5: INHERENT REQUIREMENTS

Christian Community Ministries has a deliberate and purposeful role in providing Christian education which models Christian living principles to students. This involves having a heart for the mission of our schools as well as having a lifestyle which promotes virtuous Christian living principles.

Lifestyle Requirement
It is a genuine occupational requirement (subject to the provisions of relevant anti-discrimination legislation) of Christian Community Ministries that, consistent with the Act, staff members must not act in a way that they know, or ought reasonably to know, is contrary to the religious beliefs of the Christian Community Ministries. Nothing in their deliberate conduct should be incompatible with the intrinsic character of their position, especially, but not only, in relation to the expression of human sexuality through heterosexual, monogamous relationships, expressed intimately through marriage."
Comment on your ability and willingness to demonstrate compliance with this requirement.
